

Meet the last of our wonderful speakers for this year's conference, Fr. Donald Haggerty.

Fr. Haggerty is a priest of the Archdiocese of New York, who currently serves at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City. He has been a Professor of Moral Theology and a spiritual director at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, New York. He also taught moral theology for three years at Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland and in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. For over thirty years he has given numerous retreats for Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity in many parts of the world; he also lived four years in Ethiopia assisting Mother Teresa's congregation. He is a frequent contributor to Magnificat and the author of Contemplative Provocations, The Contemplative Hunger, Conversion: Spiritual Insights into an Essential Encounter with God, Contemplative Enigmas, and most recently, Saint John of the Cross: Master of Contemplation.
